

WASHINGTON DOES HONOR TO DEWEY

Marked by Unprecedented Enthusiasm.

ROSS PERRY DELIVERS ADDRESS OF WELCOME.

President McKinley, With Official Associates, Supported by the Governors of a Dozen States and the Populace of the National Capital, Acclaim Their Pride and Affection for the Chief Military Figure of the Republic Since Washington and Grant—Secretary Long Formally Presented Sword, After a Speech.

Washington, Oct. 3.—[Special].—The nation's supreme homage to an incomparable hero was given today with unprecedented enthusiasm.

The fourth war president of the United States, with official associates, supported by the governors of a dozen states and the populace of the national capital, acclaimed their pride and affection for the chief military figure of the republic since Washington and Grant.

Major General Miles commanded the escort waiting at the white house this morning when Admiral Dewey arrived from Mrs. McLean's house. President McKinley helped the admiral into a carriage, and sitting at his side, drove with him to the steps of the capitol.

The procession included Cavalry, Infantry, Artillery, Marine, escort, also twenty officers of high rank, and many notable civilians.

After the "Star Spangled Banner" had been played by the Marine band, the address of welcome was delivered in behalf of the city of Washington by Ross Perry.

Secretary Long formally presented the sword and after his speech, a party standing in a stand were shaped to represent the bow of the Olympia.

After Secretary Long had concluded his speech, President McKinley said: "Admiral Dewey! from the time of your entrance into New York harbor with your gallant crew and ship, the people of the United States with one voice have welcomed you with love and gratitude. I am proud to add my voice to the others, as there was no flaw in your victory at Manila, and there will be no faltering in maintaining it."

Washington, Oct. 3.—Admiral Dewey was received in Washington last night with a blaze of colored fire and a whirlwind of enthusiasm. His drive up Pennsylvania avenue from the peace monument to the white house was a triumph a Roman emperor might have envied.

Pennsylvania avenue has been made historic for pageantry by the honors paid to Lafayette, to Kosuth, to the union legions at the end of the war and to the G. A. R. in 1892, and last night's demonstration will take rank with those famous reviews.

At the white house there was for the first time in many years a meeting between the admiral of the navy and the commander in chief of the army and navy. Fifteen minutes were enough for Admiral Dewey to report to Secretary Long of the navy department in the east room and to be escorted to President McKinley, his commander in chief. It must have been a meeting full of interest and intensity, but fifteen minutes sufficed for the conqueror to meet President and Mrs. McKinley and several members of the cabinet and their wives.

The distinguished party went at once to the reviewing stand directly under Secretary Gage's windows on the treasury grounds. Standing at the front of the platform on a projection representing the prow of the Olympia Admiral Dewey's eyes swept over the scene of splendor stretching away for a mile to the white-domed capitol.

Then for nearly two hours buzzing columns passed in review. They were composed of organizations representing the civic life of America.

Admiral Dewey's journey from New York was a continuous ovation. The decorated special train, which left the Pennsylvania railroad in Jersey City at 1:50 o'clock, was fully in keeping with its distinguished passenger. It was made up of five cars, and was given a clear track.

Few stops were made. When the train reached Deanwood, in the District of Columbia, John Addison Porter, secretary to the president, extended President McKinley's greetings, to which the admiral returned his thanks very briefly.

While watching the parade the admiral gave signs of weariness. His filling hand went slowly to his forehead, and when there was a short break in the column he seemed glad enough to take advantage of the president's invitation to sit down. He was up and down a dozen times before the long column was half past, always smiling, saluting wearily but gracefully. His evident weariness, in spite of his gracious and successful efforts to respond to every salute, the manner in which he kept drawing his cape tightly around him as if he suffered from the cool air of an almost perfect night, were the subjects of comment on all sides, and it was apparent that Admiral Dewey had begun to droop under the constant stress of attention and laudation of the last five days.

The dinner which will be tendered Admiral Dewey by the president this evening promises to be one of the grandest banquets ever served at the executive mansion. There will be seventy-four covers, which is four in excess of the number invited to the dinner in honor of the Paris peace commissioners after their return to this country.

New York, Oct. 3.—Through his secretary, Admiral Dewey made public the following statement: "Admiral Dewey has received so many letters of welcome and congratulations since his arrival in the United States that he finds it impossible to answer them. He therefore takes this means of acknowledging their receipt and thanking all his friends for their many kindnesses."

TEXAS CARNIVAL IS OPENED.

Leaders of the Fair Make Speeches at Dallas.

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 3.—The two days' democratic carnival opened Monday, the event of the morning being the arrival of William J. Bryan. The city is packed with democrats representing forty states, Oklahoma and Indian Territory.

Among the prominent men awaiting the coming of Bryan were O. H. P. Belmont of New York, Judge Taft of Kentucky, Col. Wetmore of Missouri, United States Senators Berry of Arkansas and Chilton of Texas, Congressmen Sulzer of New York, Maddox of Georgia, Gordon of Ohio, Benton and Clark of Missouri, Richardson of Tennessee, Davis of Florida, Dismore of Arkansas, the Texas delegation, Gov. Jones of Arkansas, ex-Gov. Adams of Colorado and Crittenden and Stone of Missouri; A. W. Terrell, ex-United States ambassador to Turkey; J. G. Johnson of Kansas, Mayor Joseph of Milwaukee, Harvey Salomon of St. Louis, and thousands of lesser leaders.

Mr. Bryan arrived at the grounds shortly after 10 o'clock, and was accorded a great ovation. Among those who surrounded him on the speakers' stand were O. H. P. Belmont, Gov. Sayers of Texas, ex-Senator Reagan and all of the Texas congressional delegation. Ex-Gov. Stone of Missouri was received with cheers when Chairman George Carden introduced him. His speech was frequently applauded.

At the afternoon meeting the crowds were larger than in the morning. Gen. Cabell presided. Champ Clark of Missouri made a speech in denunciation of the gold standard and the efforts of Secretary of the Treasury Gage to enforce it.

At night there was a large procession composed of the labor organizations of Dallas. After the procession had passed the night meeting was called to order and Congressman William Sulzer of New York and W. J. Bryan spoke. The income tax received fifteen minutes' handling. The Chicago platform, free silver and the trust question were discussed. Continuing, Mr. Bryan said:

"The republican party today stands for a large army. It has wanted it for years. When in this union we have a great standing army we would have a horde of life-holding officers. When we have a horde of soldiers we will not only have the burden that is borne in other nations, but a grave menace to the very principles of the life of our government itself, and, also, my friends, if we have an imperial policy we will have a large standing army. You never can reduce the army below 100,000. It will be constantly augmented if this nation enters upon an imperial policy."

Will Protect American Interests.

New York, Sept. 3.—A special to the Herald from Washington says that immediately upon the outbreak of hostilities between the Transvaal and Great Britain instructions will be sent to Commander John P. German Not to Fight.

Berlin, Oct. 3.—The North German Gazette makes the formal announcement that German residents are exempt from military service in the Transvaal.

The Neueste Nachrichten and the National Zeitung deny that any negotiations are in progress between Germany and Great Britain with reference to Delagoa bay or the Transvaal crisis.

The Berlin papers continue to attack Great Britain and her policy in the Transvaal.

ARTILLERY MOVING TOWARD KIMBERLEY

ORANGE FREE STATE FORCES TO HOLD THE TOWN.

Attempt Will be Made to Hold the British Re-inforcements From the South in Check—If Successful Boer Raiders Can Operate With a Free Hand.

Cape Town, Oct. 3.—[Special].—Detachments of Orange Free State artillery are moving in the direction of Kimberley, the diamond mining town, which is almost on the frontier and it is believed, the Free State forces will cross the border and seize Kimberley, and attempt to hold the British reinforcements from the south in check.

If successful, the Boer raiders to the north, can operate with a free hand.

Cubans Anxious to Fight Boers.

Berlin, Oct. 3.—[Special].—Over two thousand Cubans, veterans of the war with Spain, have offered their services to the British war office to fight against the Boers.

London, Oct. 3.—[Special].—The bank rate here has been raised to four and a half per cent. and the Berlin rate advanced to six per cent.

The advances are due to the Transvaal situation.

London, Oct. 3.—Reports of the capture of Dundee, Natal, by the Boers were received last night, but remain unconfirmed. It is said at Pretoria that fighting may be expected tomorrow. Kruger's army is practically mobilized and notice was issued yesterday to the British army reserves to hold themselves in readiness for service. The forces of the Orange Free State are also prepared for emergencies. In British dockyards and arsenals the greatest activity prevails.

London, Oct. 3.—The Berlin correspondent of the Daily News says it is understood there that before beginning hostilities against Transvaal Great Britain will send a circular to the powers explaining her motives and objects in going to war with the Boers.

The same correspondent says it is stated in official quarters that the recent frequent interviews between Lord Salisbury, the British prime minister, and Count von Hatzfeldt, the German ambassador at London, referred to Sappho.

Flight at Dundee Removed.

London, Oct. 3.—The Boers are reported to have attacked the British forces at Dundee, near the Natal border. The report is not confirmed. Later dispatches from Natal deny that the Boers have attacked Dundee, and that the British forces at that point have been defeated.

A glance at the map will show the practical impossibility of such a conflict, but it is quite possible that the Boers have crossed the border and attacked Laing's Nek.

That point was held, according to late reports, by only one British regiment, which would probably be compelled to fall back upon Dundee, where there are some 5,000 British troops.

It is understood here that the war office has ordered the commanding general to make his stand at Dundee until the troops from India and Europe arrive.

A dispatch from Durban, Natal, says that the British forces from India are landing there.

Boers May Win First Fight.

If fighting begins at once, the war office expects to hear of Boer successes, as they outnumber the British three to one. An invasion of the Transvaal is impossible before Christmas, meanwhile Boer raids into Natal and Cape Colony are unavoidable.

Strength of the Transvaal.

In an interview, Mr. J. B. Robinson, a South African millionaire, who claims to speak as a friend of President Kruger and the Boers, says the fighting strength of the Transvaal is grossly exaggerated. Speaking from intimate and lifelong knowledge of the country, he estimates the total force, including the friendly uitlanders, at 15,000 men, while the Orange Free State could put only 7,000 men in the field.

English Leaders Wish Peace.

The leading English statesmen of all parties undoubtedly wish for peace, although they are not hopeful that war will be averted.

Gen. Sir Redvers Buller, who is to command the British troops in South Africa, will sail for Cape Town on Oct. 6.

Parliament to Meet on Oct. 17.

It is announced that parliament will meet Oct. 17, to vote funds for the war with the Boers. The session will doubtless be stormy, but the budget will go through.

OFFER IS DECLINED BY MCKINLEY.

President Refuses to Arbitrate in Transvaal Trouble.

New York, Oct. 3.—Charles D. Pierce, consul-general of the Orange Free State, Monday received a cablegram relative to affairs in the Transvaal. Consul Pierce said the cable was of such a nature that he could not make it public, but he was at liberty to say that the president of the Orange Free State had made an ineffectual effort to induce President McKinley to request other powerful nations to act with the United States as arbitrators between Great Britain and the Transvaal. Mr. Pierce said that the warm and close relations between Great Britain and the United States prevented President McKinley moving in so momentous a matter.

Cunard Liners Withdrawn.

VISITED HISTORICAL CHURCH

Extract From an Interesting Letter By W. W. Watt.

The following is an extract from a letter written from London by W. W. Watt to his parents, and which has just been received:

"Before sending this letter, Joe and I walked to Westminster Abbey. As I pored over these few lines I am seated in the poet's corner of this wonderful church. Within ten feet of me are the graves of such men as Tennyson, Dickens and Shakespeare. Just think of it. Several visitors 'how stand before me looking at Shakespeare's statue, and as they glance at me I know they wonder what I am writing about. It is now 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and as the soft rays of sunlight fall into the high church windows, the sight is grand. To my left are buried noted musicians such as Handel. At my feet is the grave of David Garrick."

In another part of the church I saw the place where the two princesses were buried who were murdered in the Tower of London, also the tomb of Mary Queen of Scots and the grand chapel of Henry VII, also the grave of Queen Elizabeth.

Well! Well! As I write these lines my feet rest on the very slab beneath which is buried Gladstone. The inscription says:

FOUNDER OF ALLEN GROVE

Mrs. Sidney Allen the Last Surviving Pioneer.

A dispatch was received at Beloit from Commandant Merritt S. Allen of Orting, Wash., to the effect that his mother, Mrs. Sidney Allen, died at his home, September 23, at the age of eighty-seven years, and that the remains would reach Beloit en route to Allen Grove, the latter part of the week.

About the year 1846, five brothers by the name of Allen, with their wives, emigrated to Wisconsin from the then far east and founded the little village of Allen Grove in Walworth county.

For years this was a community of prosperous and highly cultured homes. Allen Grove academy became quite a noted place of learning, and for a time was an important feeder of Beloit college. Among Beloit college men who prepared at that institution were the Rev. E. P. Salmon, Joel B. Dow, Eugene B. Dyke, Albert and James S. Norton and Merritt S. Allen. Mrs. Allen was the last survivor of the ten men and women who founded that little village.

BIG YACHT RACE IS "NO CONTEST"

Neither Boat Finished Within Time Limit.

COLUMBIA OUTPOINTED LIP-TON'S SHAMROCK.

Boats Started Over the Line at 11:16 a. m.—Challenger Got Off With a Lead of Twenty-five Seconds—Cap Defender Turned at 1:29, Six and One-Half Minutes Ahead—At 2:34 She Was Three-Eighths of a Mile in the Lead—New York, 4:30 p. m.—[Special].—

The yacht race was declared no contest, as the boats failed to finish within the prescribed time.

New York, Oct. 3.—[Special].—Interest in all quarters of the globe is centered in the great international yacht races for the American cup, the first race of which is being sailed today between the Columbia and Shamrock off Sandy Hook.

At 11:16 o'clock the boats started over the line.

The Shamrock got off with a lead of about twenty-five seconds, which the Columbia, in the first five minutes sailing seemed to be unable to cut.

The Columbia turned at 1:22 and the Shamrock at 1:29, bringing her six and one-half minutes behind the American boat.

The Shamrock began to crawl up after making the turn and at 2:27 the Columbia was about a minute and a half ahead. The Columbia, however, completely outpointed the challenger and in the next few minutes began to forge ahead again, increasing her lead at 2:34 to three eighths of a mile. At this point the racers were making for shore.

Preparation For Races

The yachtsmen poked their heads out of windows this morning and cast their weather eye to windward. They found a fair crisp day with the wind blowing from the north at a rate varying from six to ten miles per hour, but giving evidence of freshening.

This breeze was just to the Columbia's liking.

Shortly after the sun came up, excursion boats began hauling thousands of yacht enthusiasts out to witness the first race between the Columbia and Shamrock.

The crews of both boats were astir early and everything that American or British skill could devise in the way of preparatory work, was done long before the yachts were given word to cut loose from their moorings and sail from Sandy Hook light ship the starting point of the race.

Both yachts reached the starting point about 10 o'clock and the haze had completely disappeared and the distant horizon stood out in bold relief.

The atmospheric conditions made an admirable day for the spectators.

Man and nature favor the Shamrock, and all wagers made last night were at even money. First, the Irish challenger gets a time allowance over the less stable Columbia of 6.333 seconds.

That's Lipton's luck and Fife's shrewdness, but it may mean the race. And the winds add their favoritism, too, for the weather forecast is for fresh north to northeast winds. If that presages a breeze above twelve knots one of the screws that holds the America's cup to the table of the New York Yacht club is loosened if not entirely gone.

Up till the time the astounding news that the Columbia would have to give the Shamrock a time allowance was made public, the betting was 100 to 80 on the Columbia, but the odds veered at once, and later all the betting which was done, and that was little, was at even money. Thousands upon thousands will see the race. Every sailing craft that is seaworthy along the coast has been chartered and all are ready for the first race, which promises to be sailed under sunny skies and in crisp October air with fresh breezes and a wonderful spectacle of an international cup race at its best.

Capt. Robley D. Evans has perfected all arrangements for policing the course, and he has set his heart upon a clean race and no blanketing. He will place a revenue officer on board any vessel violating his orders and take the craft and passengers back to the city, revoke the license of the skipper and bar the vessel from the course.

The course is fifteen knots dead to windward or leeward and return. The start will be at 11 o'clock, and if the boats do not finish in five and a half hours there is no race.

CLINTON PIONEER CALLED BY DEATH

FRANCIS WESTBY'S DEMISE
OCCURRED LAST WEEK.

Settled on a Farm North of the Junction Village in the Year 1843—A Precipitation of Snow Sept. 29th—Telephone Company Gets Permission to Erect Poles.

Clinton, Oct. 3.—The week just closed witnessed the passing away of Francis Westby, one of Clinton's earliest settlers, whose death occurred on Sept. 28, 1899, and who had reached the advanced age of eighty-two years. Deceased was born in Leicester, England, in 1817. He came to this country at the age of fourteen years, spending several years in New York state. In 1843, he came to Wisconsin, and settled on a farm one half mile north of this village, where he lived for many years. In 1869 he moved to Virginia, where he resided three years, and then accepted a government position at Washington, where he remained until 1885. He then returned to Clinton to spend the remaining years of his life. He had been in feeble health for a year or more previous to his death. Mr. Westby was married in 1852 to Miss Emeline S. Bradley, who resided in the town of Turtle, and who survives him. He also leaves a son and two daughters—Archibald D. Westby of Minneapolis, Mrs. John H. Soper and Mrs. E. L. Benedict of Clinton. Mr. Westby was a kind hearted, quiet, unassuming man who had many friends and not an enemy in the world. He was an earnest Christian and his life was in keeping with the principles he professed and an example for good to all. The funeral services were held at his late home on Pleasant street on Sunday at 3 p. m. Rev. Wm. Moore conducted the services, taking for his text, Isaiah 61-6 "We All do Fade as a Leaf." A quartette composed of Miss Alice Warner, Mrs. Althea Inman, W. I. Hartshorn and B. Olds, rendered the song service. His remains were laid to rest in the cemetery here in sight of the home in which he had spent twenty-six of the best years of his life. The following appropriate verse was selected by the pastor for the closing of his funeral discourse:

"Life! We've been long together, Through pleasant and through cloudy weather;
'Tis hard to part, when friends are dear,
Perhaps 'twill cost a sigh, a tear;
Thou'lt steal away, give little warning;
Choose thine own time;
Say not 'Good night,' but in some brighter
clime,
Bid me 'Good morning.'"

Snow was observed to fall on the afternoon of September 29. The precipitation was very slight and lasted about one minute. The members of a district school near here were smothered out one day last week by the falling of a stove pipe. The teacher had to dismiss school. After considerable delay the telephone company have succeeded in getting permission to erect poles within the limits of the village corporation. We can now expect to "hello" Janesville, soon. Mrs. H. N. Cronkite returned Saturday evening from her visit of a month with relatives on the Atlantic coast. Hamlin Hatch and wife will remove from Grand Rapids to Detroit. Charles Colby writes his mother from Ft. Snelling that he will remain there until Oct. 15. He will then go to San Francisco for a week's stay, after which he will sail for Manila. D. C. Griswold was in Evansville last Saturday. Matt Thornton, the stone quarry man, has "folded his tent" on the banks of the Turtle and sought winter quarters in Chas. Loomis' comfortable shanty back in the woods. He will spend much of his time this winter in hunting and trapping in this vicinity. W. C. Graber is fixing up for baths in the rear of his barber shop. They were driven to his farm at Tiffany. Mrs. Ida Engbertsen is about to leave Clinton and take her residence in Beloit. Miss Maud Crippon unfortunately is still obliged to use crutches, as the result of her recent illness. Miss Lillian Soper has been home for the past week. Dr. J. M. Towneend expects to leave for Portage this week, where he will take up his residence. The doctor has had a good practice during his three years stay in Clinton and has made many friends who will regret to have him go. Miss Jennie Hollister and Judson Storr of Sharon, were recently married at Walworth by the Rev. W. N. Clark. They will live on a farm south east of here. A PRETTY WEDDING OCCURS AT MILTON

GILLESBY FETHERSTON NUP-TIALS ARE SOLEMNIZED.

About Sixty Relatives and Friends Witnessed the Ceremony Thursday Evening—G. S. Burdick Meets With a Serious Accident—Interesting Jots of a Personal Nature.

THE GAZETTE AGENCY
W. W. CLARK, Manager,
Milton, Wis., Oct. 3, 1899.

A pretty home wedding took place in this village on Thursday evening last. About sixty relatives and intimate friends of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fetherston assembled at their pleasant residence to witness the marriage of their daughter, Elsie Lea, to Prof. O. Gillesby of Chicago. The house was beautifully decorated with vines and potted plants. At 7:30 the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, rendered by Miss Helen Menzies, who presided at the organ, silenced the merry company and almost immediately the groom accompanied by Dr. Ernest A. Fetherston as best man, took their places beneath a canopy of white asters and ferns. They were followed by two little flower girls, Miriam Tracy and Maud Fetherston, who carried baskets of white and pink carnations which they distributed among the guests later. Soon the bride, appearing leaning on the arm of Miss H. N. Tracy, who acted as bridesmaid. The former was attired in ivory satin trimmed with mousseline de soie and applique lace, while the latter wore white organdie. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. G. Huey of Rock Prairie, assisted by the Rev. A. L. McClelland of Milton. After receiving the hearty congratulations of all present the wedding party gathered around tables, artistically adorned with smilax and pansies, and partook of a bountiful supper. Scarcely had it been concluded when the bride and groom slipped away unobserved and were being driven to Janesville, thus completely eluding the vigilance of the rice throwers, whose only gratification as they met half an hour later at the depot to bid the bridal party farewell, was in liberally sprinkling each other. Those present from out of town were: Miss Eva McMichael and Samuel Squire of Waterford, Ontario; Misses Harriet N. and Miriam Tracy and F. E. Fetherston, and Messrs. John Adams, S. H. Fetherston and Dr. E. A. Fetherston of Chicago. The presents were numerous and beautiful. Among them, a set of parlor furniture; parlor chairs and table; silver tea set; solid silver tea spoons; knives and forks; cake knife; salad fork; sugar shell; water set and tea set. TWO CLEVER ATTRACTIONS

"A Rag Time Reception" and "A Stranger in New York." This Week.

The new laughable mix-up "A Rag Time Reception" is one roar of laughter from start to finish and was thoroughly enjoyed by large audiences the past two weeks in Chicago. It will be presented at the Myers Grand, Thursday, Oct. 5. It is a bright, happy musical melange, complete in its funny sayings, amusing complications and incidental to the play many new, original and unique specialties are introduced by all the principal members of the company, all of which occur in a natural manner. The management has shaken off the dust of the ordinary combination of farceurs and has weeded out all the old conventional moss covered ideas, presenting an up-to-date comedy, a faultless fantasy of fantastic dances, introducing a company composed of artists of ability, beautifully costumed and a handsome and appropriately staged production.

The company numbers twenty-five people, which includes Miss Beatrice Goldie, the comic opera prima donna, Mr. Gus Fixley, the famous tramp comedian, Miss Gladys Van, the New York World's Redoubtable, Mr. Phil Michaels, London Music Hall character artist, J. C. Odell, baritone, Joe B. Murphy, comedian, La Belle Nadine, toe dancer, The DeVauls, William and Birdie, in the principal characters. Mr. John E. Daniels is musical director, and the play is under the well known management of Grahame Bromilow.

"A Stranger in New York." Hoyt's latest and best success, "A Stranger in New York," will be presented in this city at the Myers Grand opera house, Saturday evening. The play is a brilliant farcical skit and full of theatrical "ginger." It is a clever presentation of a jolly comedy. The piece is strictly Hoytian in style and spirit, and classed among the best of the popular playwrights' efforts. "A Stranger in New York" is written in Hoyt's happiest view. It is a crisp play, full of sparkling humor, catchy songs and music.

BELLE DAVISS, BELLE DARLING and CHAS. HOOKER the Dancing Marvels.

There are new Hoytian jokes and good vaudeville specialties of an interesting and entertaining character. The situations and complications are jolly and amusing. Avail yourselves of the opportunity and see the clever comedy which is a joy and a pastime forever. The play and players have been most cordially received by both the press and public, wherever presented. "A word to the wise" secure your seats early.

HABEAS CORPUS FOR CARTER

Writ Issued Giving the Captain Another Chance for Freedom.

New York, Oct. 3.—Capt. Oberlin M. Carter, court-martialed and disgraced, a prisoner in Castle William, Governor's island, has another chance for liberty. Monday night Judge E. Henry Lacombe, federal circuit judge, granted a writ of habeas corpus returnable Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Until the prisoner is produced in court and a hearing of his case is had he cannot be taken from the city. As a result his transfer to Fort Leavenworth will be delayed.

The little word "or" may save Capt. Carter, thanks to a technicality in the verdict of his conviction, which his lawyer has discovered. The discovery of the technicality may mean his complete freedom.

Capt. Carter's punishment for the crimes of which he was found guilty by court-martial at Savannah consisted of five years' imprisonment, a fine of $5,000 and the publication of his degradation. In reading over the articles of war A. J. Rose, Capt. Carter's lawyer, found this clause: "Every person who shall have been convicted of the offenses of which he is charged shall be punished by fine or imprisonment or by such punishment as the court-martial may adjudge."

The word "or," in Lawyer Rose's opinion, gives the clause but one meaning, namely, that the court-martial has a choice of three distinct penalties, but cannot impose all three of them at once. By doing so in Capt. Carter's case he concludes the court has violated the constitution of the United States, which provides that no man can be punished twice for the same offense. Then followed his petition to Judge Lacombe, and the writ was granted.

Missouri Town Burned.

Springfield, Mo., Oct. 3.—The little town of Strafford, ten miles east of here, was practically destroyed by fire early Sunday morning. Nearly all the male population was in Springfield attending a meeting of Woodmen and the women had to fight the fire almost alone. Drouth had made water scarce and the town was very dry. At times every building in the city would be afire. Women saved several residences by the use of wet blankets. Hanson & Thorson, general merchandise, who lost $20,000, were the heaviest losers; insurance light.

Why It Succeeds.

Because It's For One Thing Only, and Janesville is Learning This.

Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success. Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only. They're for sick kidneys. They cure backache, every kidney ill. Here is Janesville evidence to prove it:

Mrs. S. L. Belden, of 64 S. River St., says: "During two or three years I suffered most of the time with a terrible dragging down pain in my back just over the kidneys. It was very trying when I was at work, and if I did any lifting my bladder became affected, causing me considerable annoyance. I also had attacks of headaches, which seemed like congestion in the top and back of my head. When I read about Doan's Kidney Pills I did not have any too much confidence in them, but my daughter got a box at the People's Drug Co.'s store and persuaded me to use them. They took right hold and made a wonderful change in my condition. I hardly realized how bad I was until Doan's Kidney Pills brought me relief from the afflictions."

FUNSTON'S POSITION.

Chicago Inter Ocean: It is the policy of the anti-expansionists and copperheads to represent that every officer who has distinguished himself in the war in the Philippines is personally opposed to the war policy. Few American papers have the courage to represent now that Admiral Dewey is opposed to the war, but this work has been taken up by the newspapers in England and France. General Lawton was at one time quoted as hostile to the plans of General Otis, but General Lawton took particular pains to put himself right before the people. An attempt was made to put General Wheeler in a false position as soon as he arrived at Manila, but this was unsuccessful. An attempt was also made and persisted in to misrepresent General Funston, formerly of the Twentieth Kansas. The story published some weeks ago was to the effect that Funston, out of sympathy with the war policy, was leaving the army in disgust. Whether he saw these reports or not, General Funston, in a letter to a friend at Fort Scott, wrote:

"I would like to see the war through to the finish, not for the position I hold, but because my fighting blood is up. I am confident that by spring it will be over. The indications are that an aggressive campaign will be inaugurated this fall, and they will have what they lacked, 8,000 cavalry, absolutely indispensable in a guerilla war. Lord, wouldn't I like to command a cavalry brigade!"

"I have never for a minute had any qualms as to the justice of this war. We are right and they are wrong. I hope that when they are conquered they will be made to feel for many years the iron hand of military rule, the only kind for which they are suited. I think the islands a most valuable acquisition. Their natural resources are almost beyond computation. From a strictly money standpoint they are great."

This is as complete an answer to the anti-expansionist intimidations as to the position of General Funston as could be made. Funston, like most of those who have taken part in the war, whether serving in the ranks or holding commissions, whether serving in the navy or with the land forces, believes in the justice of the war; believes that the rebels are wrong and that the Americans are right, and believes in holding fast to the Philippines. This declaration of General Funston's will spoil many a democratic speech based on falsehoods published in copperhead newspapers.

"Wheeling, W. Va.," says a dispatch, "made 56,250,000 stogies last year." Yes, and the 56,250,000 stogies made at least five times that many people turn up their noses. Let history be complete while we are at it.

Mismanagement is now charged in the British war office in South Africa. The charges are easy to make, and will find ready belief, but an investigation will, doubtless show that there is nothing to them.

A Milwaukee policeman was beaten to death while endeavoring to arrest a man a few days ago, and yet people seem to think the policeman has a sin-cure.

Press dispatches say that "bicycle racing is falling off." We thought the beginners, not the racers, did all that.

John Hockett Fined For Riding His Wheel On Sidewalk.

John Hockett, the fourteen year old son of George Hockett, No. 120 Park street, was ushered into the municipal court today, charged with violating a city ordinance, by riding a bicycle on the sidewalk. The complaining witness was Dr. William Horne, who resides on the same thoroughfare as Hockett and who claims that the boy was in the habit of riding his wheel on the sidewalk in front of his residence. Hockett pleaded guilty to the charge and Judge Fifield fined him $2 and costs, amounting in all to $4.41, which he paid with alacrity.

ANOTHER DESIGN

To Complete the Historical Frieze Around the Capitol's Rotunda.

Washington Special New York Mail and Express: It has been the ambition of every administration to complete the historical frieze around the big rotunda under the great dome of the capitol. This fresco illustrates the history of the United States from the landing of Columbus. It has been completed, except one panel or space, and as each administration has come and gone, designs have been submitted to fill that space with some event that occurred during that particular administration. The latest suggestion was made during Mr. Cleveland's last term, when it was proposed to fill the vacant space with the scene of the opening of the World's Fair at Chicago. This picture was to represent Mr. Cleveland touching the electric button and starting the machinery of the Columbian exposition. Designs were drawn and submitted, but the project did not quite please the congressional committee which has charge of the capitol. Within the last few weeks a New York artist has come forward with another design to complete the historical frieze, and this time the subject is the freedom of Cuba. The artist has treated the subject in an allegorical way, representing President McKinley as striking the shackles off the arms of a female, supposed to represent Cuba. Some have proposed that the artist change his design, and, instead, add other figures, representing Porto Rico, Hawaii, and the Philippines, as well as Cuba. No doubt, when congress meets the design will be submitted to the congressional committee.

Skating on Water.

According to Prof. J. Joly of Trinity College, Dublin, a skater really glides about on a narrow film of water, continually forming under the skate, and resuming the solid form when relieved of pressure. He shows that the pressure under the sharp edge of the skate, along the short portion of the steel curve which is at any moment in contact, is great enough to liquefy a thin line of ice, and this gives the skate its "bite." When the ice is very cold, the pressure is sometimes inadequate to reduce the melting point sufficiently, and then, as all skaters know, it is difficult to make the skate bite. For very cold ice Prof. Joly recommends "hollow ground" skates, because the effective pressure increases with the thinness of the edge.

Puffs of Tobacco Smoke.

Science has calculated that an average puff of cigar smoke sets free over 2,000,000,000 tiny particles, a whiff from a pipe liberates over 1,800,000,000 of these particles, and one from a cigarette starts 2,900,000,000 of them flying through the surrounding atmosphere.

Rosa Bonheur as a Child.

The late Rosa Bonheur was a headstrong romp in early childhood. The only way to keep her quiet was to give her a pair of scissors and paper to cut out silhouettes of the cat, the dog, or the horses at the neighboring cabstand.

MORE GLACIERS THAN GOLD.

Scientists Found Many Natural Wonders Up in Alaska.

Two members of E. H. Harriman's scientific party that has been exploring the Alaskan coast for some months past have returned to Vancouver and bring accounts of their cruise on the steamer Elder, which indicate that Mr. Harriman and the scientists will return laden with many laurels. They seem to have developed a mania for glaciers, having visited and explored more than thirty, some of which were unknown except to natives. In one bay, not shown on the maps or charts, they discovered an immense glacier, not as large as the giant Muir, but much more grand and picturesque. The bay extends inland more than twenty miles and at a point near the glacier a sounding line of forty fathoms did not touch bottom. This inlet they named Unknown bay. It was here that the Elder, maneuvering among the cakes of ice broke from the glacier, broke a propeller blade, making it necessary to return to Orca, where repairs were made. At the head of Disenchantment bay they found four glaciers which had never been seen before by white men. In Toy bay, twenty miles across, opposite Carroll's glacier, the party discovered a new glacier with a front of three-fourths of a mile. This was named Harriman's glacier. Observations taken in the vicinity of Grand Pacific glacier showed that its ice wall had receded three miles during the 20 years that have elapsed since Muir and Reed visited the place and established their survey. The different scientists are having gratifying success in all lines. The botanists have found several new plant species and a collection of marine species made by the party, it is said, will be superior to any other in existence. Ornithologists have had phenomenal success and are able to show new bird specimens.

The Oyster and the Britisher.

Until the public feel that they can insure their oysters being reasonably free from pollution they will not be content, and the administration of the act by a body of men financially interested in the fisheries will not bring about that end. Surely it is in the interests of the oyster trade to seek for a measure which will at any rate afford some guarantee to the public of the purity of their oysters, and the Sea Fisheries committees will afford no such sense of security.—Lancet.

START A BANK ACCOUNT.

Every Woman Who Could Ought to Have a Check Book.

A business woman, whose experience has been long and successful, said to me the other day: "If I were asked to give the best advice I could think of for young women who are earning their own living, or who have the cares and expenses of a household to look after, and if I had to confine myself to just four words, I should say, 'Start a bank account.' It is an easy matter to do so nowadays, when both the savings banks and others offer women every opportunity and inducement. Besides, it is a good thing to do for several reasons. It fosters a feeling of independence and develops business-like habits, two essentials for a business woman. Then, too, it is a convenient and desirable thing to pay bills by means of checks where it is possible to do so. It preserves a record of the transaction and frequently prevents annoyances and mistakes. To any way of thinking, a bank account, even though it be a small one, should be looked upon as a necessity rather than a luxury by every woman who has business affairs of any consequence whatever."—Albany Times-Union.

W. W. STEVENS GETS JANSVILLE CHARGE

REVS. HALL AND WOODSIDE ARE RETURNED.

Several Important Changes in Wisconsin Conference. Report of the Local Divine on Temperance is Adopted. Rev. A. W. Stephen of Milton Junction, Goes to Merrill.

The reading of the list of the Waukesha conference appointments yesterday caused about the usual number of pastoral changes. Some got more lucrative posts and some, less desirable, from a worldly point of view.

Bishop Hurst said he had noticed a great inequality between the ability of the ministers in the Wisconsin conference and the salaries paid them. "There are too few places to preach for the number of preachers in the conference. This condition prevails here more than in any conference I can call to mind, outside of the eastern districts."

The business the last day went through fast. When the Dr. Scheel resolution came up in the Epworth League committee's report Bishop Hurst showed a disposition to shut off discussion, and Henry Colman, who drew it up, tried three times before he was recognized, to speak for its passage. The temperance report by Rev. W. A. Hall, pastor of the local Court Street M. E. church, did not call forth the fiery clash that has been known in the past, in spite of the fact that it did not advocate the third party movement.

Report on Temperance.
The report on temperance, presented by Rev. Hall was as follows and was adopted:

"The liquor traffic has not changed its nature. It is still evil. It is thoroughly organized and vigorously active. It controls legislation. Christian people are to be fully aroused. Temperance forces are yet to be united. We must educate, agitate, and organize. God speed the time when the solid rock of strong public opinion will stand under and make stable the completest temperance measures."

Resolved, First, that we urge upon the government the importance of using all available means for suppressing the sale of liquor in connection with the army, and commend its expression in the navy.

Second, That we are in sympathy with the principles and aims of the Anti-Saloon League, and request the appointment of the Rev. Henry Colman as state president of that organization.

Third, We shall ever exert business men to vigorously resist by counter action, the efforts of the liquor power to secure the "obedience of transportation companies, to its unjust demands regarding the employees of the same."

Fourth, That we do not believe in any backward step or any compromise measure and that we will be satisfied with no attainment short of complete prohibition, state and national.

Some of the Prominent Changes
W. P. Leek, who succeeds A. J. Benjamin in St. Paul's church, Green Bay, a $1,500 charge, has just served five years at Clinton, in the Jansville district. A. W. Stephen goes to Merrill, a $1,500 appointment, from Milton Junction, an $85 charge. F. M. Pease, who steps out of the Jansville presiding eldership after five years of service, is assigned to Wausau, where the pay is $1,500 a year, succeeding B. F. Sanford, who is assigned to Ripon after two years service at Wausau.

William Rollin succeeds T. D. Williams at Beaver Dam, coming from two years at the Evansville church. Sabin Halsey, stationed at Sharon, in the Jansville district the past year, goes to Division Street church, Fond du Lac, succeeding Dr. R. W. Bosworth, who was formerly elder of the Jansville district, and who has been assigned to Lake Geneva.

Webster Miller, after two years in the Fond du Lac district, goes to Evansville, a church that pays $1,300 a year. After two years at Wauwatosa, John Schneider has been appointed to Fort Atkinson, a $1,400 charge. Samuel Luk succeeds O. P. Christman at Lyons, which pays $1,000. A. R. Grant is transferred from Ripon to Sharon, a $1,000 appointment.

Jansville District Appointments
The Jansville district appointments are as follows: W. W. Stevens, presiding elder. Allen Grove and Fairfield, R. H. Jones; Beloit, T. D. W. Peake; Clinton, E. S. McChesney; Delavan and Darien, George Vatter; East Troy, J. A. Colinge; Edgerton and Albion, E. J. Symons; Elkhorn and Bethel, M. A. Drew; Evansville, Webster Miller; Fort Atkinson, John Schneider; Footville, H. C. Logan; Hart Prairie, J. H. James; Hebron and Rome, William Dawson; First church, Jansville, W. W. Woodside; Court Street, Jansville, W. A. Hall; Jefferson circuit, A. A. Bennett; Lake Geneva, B. W. Bosworth; Lake Mills, W. W. Warner; London and Milford, Henry Sewell; Lyons, J. J. Lugg; Milton and Lima, F. B. Sherwin; Milton Junction and Keshikonong, C. M. Stark; Orlinville and Plymouth, J. M. Woodward; Palmyra and Little Prairie, Samuel Lugg; Palmyra circuit, J. B. Noyes; Richmond and Uffers' Corners, O. W. Nuss; Shopiere, F. C. Richardson; Stoughton and Wheeler Prairie, G. W. Pratt; Whitewater, Enoch Perry.

Presiding Elder Stevens, Revs. W. A. Hall of this city, W. P. Leek, J. B. Wise and J. H. Owen were appointed on the district board of church location for the ensuing year.

A PROTEST IS MADE BY REV. MATT EVANS

FORMER JANSVILLE MINISTER CREATES SENSATION.

Declares That He Has Not Been Treated Right by the Bishop and the Conference, and Asks For a Certificate of Location—No Action Taken.

Rev. Matthew Evans, formerly of this city, was the central figure of a sensation at the Methodist conference. A Waukesha dispatch says:

"There was a great sensation sprung this morning, when Dr. Matthew Evans of the Second church at Oshkosh arose and virtually announced to the conference that he was not receiving fair treatment in the matter of appointment."

"The announcement struck the entire conference dumb, with the exception of the bishop, who did some questioning, after Dr. Evans had nearly finished. The matter will be investigated at once and Dr. Evans will have his rights."

Dr. Evans arose and commenced by saying that he had been in the church for the past fifty-four years. During that time he has held among the most important charges in the conference and believed himself competent to take care of his work.

"He continued that last evening, just as he was retiring, he was called to see a gentleman, visitor. The visitor communicated to him that the church he had come from wanted to secure Dr. Evans. The official board of that church had been unanimous in its action requesting Dr. Evans' appointment to that church, and the members were all enthusiastic over the possibilities of the doctor's coming."

"Earlier than this, early this morning Dr. Evans received a telephone message from the brother who had told him of his popularity, at his possible new charge, and urging him to discover where his new charge was to be, so that the brother would know if he had been assigned to the people who had asked for him."

"The doctor did not become excited nor loud, but stated his case simply, and asked that his appointment be announced before the conference at once."

"Bishop Hurst said he must know more about the affair before he could do anything, and insisted on knowing privately who had told Dr. Evans what was expected of him. He said 'if the person were a member of the church he wanted the name. If the person were not, then, it was another thing.'"

"Dr. Evans said that the person who told him was a brother who, while not a member, had been admitted to quarterly conferences on recommendation of the presiding elder and pastor. He said he would make the name public if the bishop desired it, but that august person said he would listen privately."

"Dr. Evans finally went up to the bishop's chair and whispered to him, presumably the name of the person who informed him he was wanted at a new charge. He refused, absolutely, to talk about the affair when asked by a newspaper man."

"Some time later Dr. Evans arose again and, wanting to get away from the conference, as soon as possible, asked that his certificate of location be given. He said:

"I love you, brethren, but I do not love to be put in this position. You know that when I was sent to Campbellsport I could not take it. I cannot do it; I am not supernumerary nor superabundant. I cannot take that. I will have to withdraw from the church. I would rather be a preacher of the gospel than the ruler of the world."

"Dr. Evans was greatly moved, and made a touching appeal. He said he could not do his best work at Campbellsport, and would not go there. He asked that the conference grant him a certificate of location."

"A vote was taken but the request was not granted. At the second vote he was granted this and now is a member of the conference in supernumerary relations. He remains a member, but does not take a charge, at least at present."

"The general impression about the conference is that Dr. Evans has been 'turned down,' by the bishop and cabinet who made the list of appointments. Some of the clergymen arose to say that a preacher should go where sent, but Dr. Evans showed how vain would be an attempt to move his family to Campbellsport. The matter was dropped, so far as the conference was concerned, here."

EDGERTON BURGLARS CAUGHT

Trio of Tobacco Town Thieves Pinned in Jail Here.

The residents of Edgerton had another exciting experience with burglars Sunday, and the alleged thieves were captured and are now in jail in this city. Late Sunday afternoon a trio of men were seen to enter a general store of the tobacco town, and emerge shortly after laden with plunder. They made boldly for the railroad track and were surprised and captured by a posse who had followed them, while dividing the spoils on the outskirts of the town, near the river. The men were placed in the lockup over night and were taken before a justice yesterday for examination, which they waived. Their trial was set for Monday, Oct. 9, and they were brought down here last night by the Edgerton marshal. They are a tough looking trio and have the appearance of tramps. If they are found guilty, which is almost certain, they will be boarded by the state for some time to come.

COUNCIL DISALLOWS TWO INJURY CLAIMS

JOHN SULLIVAN AND NELLIE FINNANE ASKED DAMAGES.

City Dads Transact the Regular Routine Business—The Question of Water Service Pipe in the F. C. Cook Building Brings Forth a Heated Discussion.

A regular meeting of the common council was held last evening. In the absence of Mayor Richardson, President of the Council E. F. Carpenter occupied the chair.

The reading of the minutes was dispensed with.

Report of the municipal court was reported correct and was received and placed on file.

The lighting committee was granted further time to report on the petition for an electric light at the junction of Logan avenue with Bostwick avenue, in the Third ward.

Roy B. Valleau was granted permission to erect a building at the corner of North Bluff and North First streets.

Mayor Richardson arrived and took the chair.

A batch of bills against the several funds were allowed.

An order was adopted, directing the city clerk to draw an order for $1,036.11, to pay city note No. 29.

A report in regard to the claims for damages by John B. Sullivan and Nellie Finnane was adopted. The report of the committee was that the claims be disallowed.

The services of Fay Bump were engaged at $2 per day to run the engine at the stone crusher and the services of Len Lawrence at $2 per day to run the steam roller.

The highway committee was instructed to employ a suitable person to take charge of the stone quarry and crusher.

An order was adopted for a new sidewalk on East Milwaukee street; also for a plank crosswalk across Prospect ave. at the intersection of Fifth avenue, and one across Walker street on the west side of Prairie avenue.

It was stated that F. C. Cook wanted the privilege of putting in one water service pipe to his block instead of two. The city engineer thought Mr. Cook ought to put in two service pipes, one for each store.

Alderman Carpenter was of a different opinion and called for the question.

Mayor Richardson asked if there was anyone else who desired to be heard. This brought forth a heated discussion between Ald. Carpenter and His Honor on a point of order, but finally the request of Mr. Cook was granted.

A new sidewalk was ordered built on Bluff street and Prospect avenue; also new catch basin on Wall and Bluff streets, First ward.

Council adjourned.

BATTLESHIP RIVALRY.

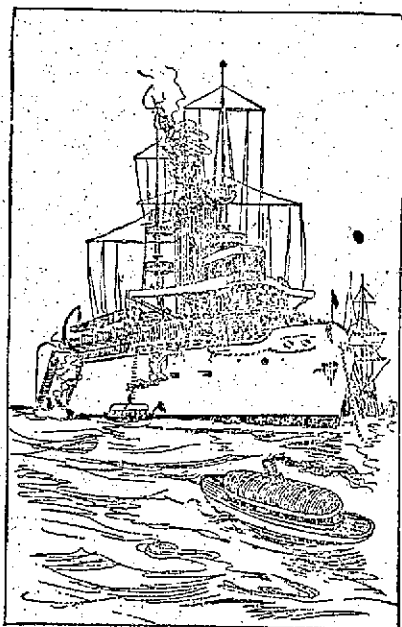

BY LIEUTENANT H. R. GAHAN.

How Uncle Sam
And John Bull
Are Striving to Build
The Best Naval Fighting Machines.

In spite of the... relations... low... the rivalry between their respective naval establishments is just as sharp as ever.

The splendid record made by our navy in the Spanish war and the impetus given to the building of a newer and greater navy as a consequence have alarmed the British admiralty. The English see that if Britain is to continue to rule the wave they must keep pace with us or we shall forge to the front.

The most interesting comparison is to be made by putting the Kearsarge, our newest battleship, side by side with the best that England can show. The mightiest of England's battleships do not excel the ship which we have built to replace the gallant old craft that laid her bones on Roncador five years ago.

It is a significant fact, too, that England has just laid down the keels of some new battleships which are intended to be a match not only for the Kearsarge, but for the Maine and Missouri, which are now in course of construction in American shipyards.

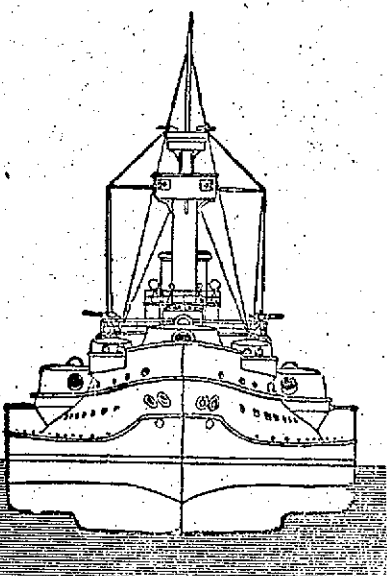

England has just discovered that she has been making a mistake in the construction of her biggest battleships. They draw too much water. Some of them require 30 feet. American builders have avoided this mistake. The new Kearsarge draws but 23 feet 6 inches, and the Maine and Missouri will have a like draft. The new British battleships will be built with a view of decreasing the draft without diminishing the amount of armor or armament.

The new batch of battleships which England is about to build as an offset to the Kearsarge, Maine and Missouri will be designed to carry the heaviest armor and the biggest guns on the lightest possible draft.

The enormous draft of the majority of England's war vessels precludes to a great extent the use of those ships in American waters. With the exception of three or four ports on the Atlantic coast—and then only at high water—and two ports on the Pacific coast, England's levitations are effectively barred from entering United States waters.

The British admiralty officials now claim that their new battleships will draw less water than any similar ships afloat, and that in point of speed and battery power the new craft will excel any vessels in existence or in process of construction anywhere.

In the new British battleship the designs, it is said, first call for a hull proper with very pronounced sloping sides. Around this hull will be placed a cofferdam construction, reaching from well below the water to the level of the main deck.

The cofferdam is expected to serve the same as would pontoons if lashed alongside. When a vessel's draft is too great to permit of her crossing a bar or shallow spot, a common recourse is to lash pontoons alongside filled with water. When firmly secured, the pontoons are pumped out, and the additional flotation power causes the vessel to rise in the water.

A vessel's draft is lessened when the beam is increased. In their new design the British architects have first built a vessel proper according to standard rules, though with perhaps more slope to the sides than would be the case were no outside hull provided. The steadiness of the ship has been increased by building a jog in the underwater hull on each side, which serves the same purpose as bilge keels. A bilge keel, it should be known, acts as a steadying power much the same as a balance pole does for the tight-rope walker.

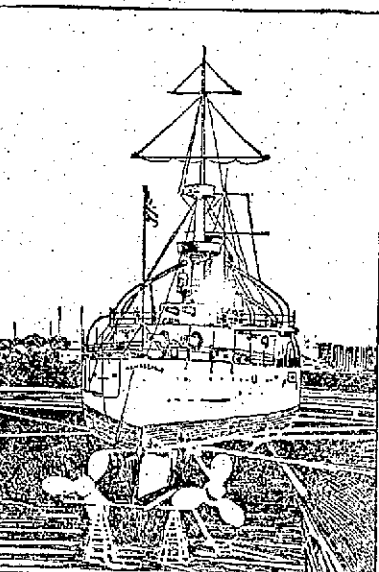

In adopting the "break in the hull" feature the English designers have appropriated an essentially American idea. It was Ericsson, the inventor of the Monitor, who originally incorporated a projecting overhang to a hull in order to secure greater righting qualities.

Additional data regarding the new British battleships give the length of each craft as 425 feet, beam 85 feet and draft 23 feet. The displacement will be about 13,000 tons. The engines, it is said, will develop about 13,000 horse power.

The reported horsepower development planned for the new British ship is a great advance on the power generally planned for battleships. The engines of the new Maine are calculated to develop 16,000 horsepower, or 4,000 horsepower more than the engines of the Indiana, Massachusetts and Oregon type ships.

The cofferdam arrangement of the new British ships, it is understood, will be constructed with special reference to strength. The armor will be placed on the outer skin, and this, when backed at the water line vicinity with corn pith serves to close any opening occasioned by the entrance of a shot. This is effected through the medium of the expansive properties of the corn pith matter when brought in contact with water.

Although these battleships will be larger than the Kearsarge, they will not have all the points of advantage. The Kearsarge is 368 feet long and has a beam of 72 feet. She has some big harkens, however. In the forward and after turrets are four 13 inch guns, and in the superimposed turrets above are four 8 inch guns. The four guns of either of these turrets may be concentrated on a single target and fired simultaneously by one man. Then look out for trouble for the enemy. The force of the shock of this mighty discharge would send one of the 13,330 pound batters of the battleship flying overboard if it happened to be on the deck near the turrets in the line of fire.

In the matter of protection the Kearsarge is well equipped. Along the water line region there is a side armor belt of a maximum thickness of 10 1/2 inches, with a mean depth of 7 1/2 feet, so disposed in reference to the load line that the vessel, with 410 tons of coal on board, has 3 1/2 feet of this belt armor above water and with 1,210 tons of coal on board has two feet above the load line.

In addition to the armor belts, cofferdams filled with compressed fireproofed American corn pith cellulose have been worked the entire length of the vessel in the region of the water line.

As to speed, the Kearsarge has just shown what she can do under medium forced draft. It is said that the new English battleships are expected to show a speed of nearly 19 knots. It must be remembered, however, that England and all other foreign naval powers make the speed tests of new warships under full forced draft and the most favorable conditions.

On paper our battleships may seem slower than those of England. The Oregon was supposed to be several knots slower than the ships of Cervera's squadron, yet the Spanish ships were readily overhauled in that memorable race out of Santiago harbor.

This is the present condition of the battleship building contest. We began with a big handicap, but we have been improving wonderfully of late. Now we think we can build just as good ships as our dear friend John Bull, if not a little better.

Fourth Regiment Encounters the Insurgents in a Series of Engagements and Repulses Them—No Terms with Otis but Complete Surrender.

Manila, Oct. 3.—The Fourth Infantry, Major Price commanding, has had a series of encounters with the insurgents at Imus since Saturday.

The natives were led, it is supposed, by a former mayor of Imus, and made a general attack upon the American lines from Imus to Bacoor. A captain and a corporal of the American forces were killed and eight men were wounded. A Filipino colonel is known to have been killed.

The fighting began on Saturday, when Capt. Brown took the same battalion that distinguished itself at Perez das Marinas and Lieut. Knabenshue's scouts against a large force of insurgents on the Perez das Marinas road, and a general engagement followed.

The Americans, lying in the mud in the rice fields, kept up a fire for an hour and a half. Re-enforcements were sent to them until altogether seven companies were engaged. The insurgents retreated. Three Americans were wounded.

Five More Americans Killed.

The insurgents attacked Imus again yesterday. The last advices from there were that the Americans had driven off the enemy. Five American soldiers were killed. The insurgents' loss was estimated to be large.

The fighting yesterday began with an attack by the insurgents on a party repairing the telegraph lines, one of whom was wounded.

Gen. Grant conducted the operations of the American forces in person on the firing line.

Naval Expedition to Oreni.

An expedition composed of an armed flatboat, armed with two three-pounders, with the gunboats Helena, Petrel and Mindoro escorting it, proceeded yesterday to Oreni for the purpose of bombarding that place, landing 200 marines and blue jackets, and raising the wrecked gunboat Urdaneta. The gunboats will approach to about 2,700 yards from Oreni and the flatboat will enter the river. The expedition will return tomorrow.

Futile Visit of Peace Envoys.

The Filipino envoys called on Major Gen. Otis yesterday and discussed the situation, but with no result. Gen. Alejandro said to a correspondent that he had no instructions except to deliver a letter, which was rejected.

Gen. Alejandro and the two other Filipino envoys, who accompanied him returned to Tarlac.

THE ULTIMATUM IS INDORSED.

Position of Gen. Otis Satisfies the War Department.

Washington, Oct. 3.—A dispatch from Gen. Otis was received at the war department on Monday giving an account of his meeting with the insurgent envoys. Gen. Otis said the interview with Aguinaldo's representatives indicated that the leaders were maneuvering solely with a view to securing recognition of the insurgent government. All such overtures were rejected, and the envoys were informed that the only thing the United States would recognize was a white flag and the grounding of arms. He also informed the envoys that such capitulation on the part of the insurgents should come quickly, in order to avoid the consequences of active war, as the United States did not intend to permit any delay in the matter.

The course of Gen. Otis is approved at the war department.

Secretary Root took the dispatch from Gen. Otis over to the white house for the president's consideration.

Gen. Otis cables the news of seventeen deaths since last report.

The rebels are believed to be trying to create a diversion in the hope of checking the projected American movement north from Angeles. They will fail, as Gen. Otis has, or soon will have, ample forces not only to keep in check all the rebels south of Manila, but also to make an aggressive campaign against them, if deemed expedient.

Dewey Made No Promises.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Dispatches from Manila represent Alejandro, head of the latest peace commission, as saying that Admiral Dewey promised him in Hongkong that the Filipinos should have their independence at the end of the war with Spain. Alejandro's statement is absolutely false. Admiral Dewey has repeatedly denied making the Filipinos any promises whatever.

Says Otis Encourages the Natives.

Madrid, Oct. 3.—According to dispatches from the Philippines, Filipinos who have returned to the interior from Manila declare that Gen. Otis is a warm friend of the Spanish archbishop of Manila, and that by allowing Spanish priests to preach against Protestants and Protestantism he encourages the natives and discourages the American soldiers.

More of the Crew in Irons.

Montreal, Que., Oct. 3.—Twenty-eight more members of the Scotsman's crew were arrested Monday when they arrived on the steamer Ottoman. They were searched and more than $1,000 in money was found on them, as well as a quantity of goods and jewelry.

Council Program Is Scored.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Before the Pan-Presbyterian alliance Monday the Rev. K. A. McDougal, editor of The Westminster, Toronto, Canada, attacked the program of the council. "The stale, flat and unprofitable questions with which this council has seemed concerned," said he, "have been discussed at every council and long ago lost every particle of interest for thoughtful and intelligent men. If we are to face another lean and barren program, 1910 would be a better date for the next council than five years hence."

The alliance selected Liverpool as the place and 1904 as the time of the next council. The synod of Brazil and the Reformed church of Pittsburgh and Ontario were admitted to membership.

Whales' Teeth as Coinage.

Whales' teeth form the coinage of the Fiji islands. They are painted white and red, the red teeth being worth about twenty times as much as the white. The native carries his wealth round his neck, the red and white of his coinage forming a brilliant contrast to his black skin. A common and curious sight in the Fiji islands is a newly married wife presenting her husband with a dowry of whales' teeth.

Washington, Oct. 3.—The monthly statement of the public debt shows that at the close of business Sept. 30, 1899, the public debt, less cash in the treasury, amounted to $1,148,905,780, a decrease for the month of $8,400,775.

Black Clothes.

The popularity of black clothes is due largely to the fact that a large percentage of men have to study economy to a greater or less degree, and a great many who do not have to do so like black clothes above fancies.

Black Clothes are Economical in that they are inconspicuous and always in
in good taste. . . .

so that one does not notice that the same suit is worn very often indeed. Also the fact that the material is black saves the expense in manufacture of making a fancy weave of different colors, which is a large item, so that for the same money one gets a much finer material in black than in fancy goods.

Our black suits are the acme of quiet good taste and elegance. Style, tailoring, and trimmings are the best and instil a great satisfaction into the bosom of the wearer.

WONDERFUL GEYSER AT WORK

California Spouter That Throws Water
500 Feet in the Air.

From the Scientific American: The people of southern California have recently been favored with one of the most extraordinary exhibitions of natural phenomena on record—one which has even astonished beyond measurement all classes of a community familiar already with instances of what nature can accomplish when it sets out to do something out of the common.
Southern Californians are so used to shocks of earthquakes, incipient volcanoes, or threatened tidal waves that it takes something extremely eruptive to disturb their ordinary composure, but the successful effort of a rural rancher in his search for water with which to irrigate his fields, parched with a long drouth, has turned the gaze of the whole state toward the little town of Whittier, a hamlet located in the neighborhood of Los Angeles. Some weeks ago a farmer named Myers, living at Santa Fe Springs, began sinking an artesian well. Others in the neighborhood had successfully tapped a subterranean flow at depths of from 300 to 400 feet, and Mr. Myers hoped for a successful issue to his enterprise. By slow stages the drills descended until a depth of 600 feet was attained. This was on Sunday, May 14. A drill weighing 200 pounds was employed and the prospect of tapping a good flow of water was becoming more and more encouraging. A ten-inch pipe had been sunk some distance, and the usual preparations made for controlling the flow when it did make its expected appearance. The heavy drill was working with its usual monotonous regularity, when, after one deep plunge, a loud roaring sound was heard coming from the well, accompanied by jets of muddy water and outbursts of heavy stones. Soon after the drill itself made its appearance, followed by a grand column of water, which forced itself higher and higher until the top reached an elevation of 500 feet. The flow was accompanied by vast quantities of gas smelling of sulphur strongly and igniting when fire was applied, burning with a strong blue flame. Oil in considerable quantities was mixed with the flow. The stones were thrown to an equal height with the water and the exhibition of tremendous force was appalling to the last degree. No geyser of the Yellowstone ever displayed such activity. The column of muddy water was like a great pillar, extending almost to the clouds and falling back to earth again in graceful festoons. The force exerted was equal to a thousand powerful engines. For two weeks this phenomenon has been active, though some diminution of the force exerted is beginning to be apparent. The flow of water is enormous, and, the country being flat, some difficulty is apprehended in its control.

THE RAPATRIADOS.

Strong Element in Spanish Politics
Which Seems Overlooked.

There is a strong element in Spanish politics which seems to have been overlooked by most observers and upon which much will depend in the near future, says the North American Review. I refer to the vast army of rapatriados, the unhappy soldiers who are returning in thousands from Cuba and the Philippines. Sore in soul and body, the victims of incompetent leaders and of a corrupt administration, the creditors of the government to the extent of two or three years' pay, these men will soon have to be reckoned with or compensated. The newly formed cabinet has already expressed its intentions through Senor Villa-verde, minister of finance, of paying up all arrears and placing Spanish finances upon a firm and honest basis; already the regiments garrisoning the Basque provinces have been clothed anew and are jingling pesetas in their pockets; pensions are to be provided for the victims of the war, and all claims are to be carefully examined.
Should these intentions be carried out, the rapatriados may be satisfied to bear the ills they know, but if the pro-crastinating policy of "manana" be again resorted to and the pretender, with his vast wealth, can enlist the services of those seasoned and embittered veterans, he will dispose of a force the value of which cannot be overrated. A large proportion of the rapatriados hail from Catalonia and the Basque provinces. They have to make their way to their homesteads at their own expense from the port at which they land, but often fail to reach their destination, so great are the privations they have suffered during their stay in the colonies and on the homeward journey.

Some Large Fees.

Sir Edwin Landseer received altogether between 8,000 and 9,000 pounds for designing the four lions which decorate the base of the Nelson column. Sir John Hawkshaw, prince of civil engineers, got 5,500 pounds for designing the Severn tunnel. Turner received 10,000 pounds for his "Dido Building Carthage," which now hangs in the National gallery; but it took him over eighteen months to paint it.
Meissonier has twice asked and received 20,000 pounds for painting a portrait. The biggest genuine commission ever disbursed to a firm of auctioneers was paid by the Duke of Hamilton over the Hamilton palace sale of 1882—25,000 pounds. The largest fee ever earned by a jockey was the 25,000 pounds paid by the Count de Lagrange to Harry Grimshaw when he steered Gladiateur to victory in the Derby of 1865.

SHARP FIGHTING AT IMUS.

Several American Soldiers Killed in a Brief Action.

FILIPINO LOSS IS HEAVY.

Fourth Regiment Encounters the Insurgents in a Series of Engagements and Repulses Them—No Terms With Otis but Complete Surrender.

Manila, Oct. 3.—The Fourth infantry, Major Price commanding, has had a series of encounters with the insurgents about Imus since Saturday.

Five More Americans Killed.

The insurgents attacked Imus again yesterday. The last advices from there were that the Americans had driven off the enemy. Five American soldiers were killed. The insurgents' loss was estimated to be large.

The fighting yesterday began with an attack by the insurgents on a party repairing the telegraph lines, one of whom was wounded.
